

CITY OF DREAMS MANILA USHERS IN THE YEAR OF THE RED FIRE MONKEY AND CELEBRATES ITS FIRST ANNIVERSARY WITH PREMIUM FARE

Manila, February 1, 2016 – City of Dreams Manila highlights the Chinese New Year and the integrated resort's first year anniversary with a month-long promotion of premium Chinese and global specialties. Exceptional Cantonese set menus will be offered at Crystal Dragon, Japanese-Peruvian dinner delights at Nobu Manila, regional Chinese a la carte dishes at Noodl8, and oriental goodies and sweets at Café Society offer guests a commemorative dining experience signifying prosperity, health, longevity, luck, and happiness throughout the year. As an added treat, gift certificates in Hong Baos will be given to diners of participating outlets when their single receipt reaches a minimum of P 4,000.

Weekend Fair at The Shops at the Boulevard

On February 6, 7 and 8, a weekend fair awaits guests at the promenade of The Shops at the Boulevard on the Upper Ground level, from 12 noon. to 9 pm where activities such as palm and tarot card reading offer an interesting and fun insight to one's future, a calligraphy art area translates names, words, and messages in Mandarin as a keepsake or special gift, and lantern and dragon paper crafts-making give children their time of day. A four-piece music ensemble entertains revelers at 5 to 5:30 p.m., 6:30 to 7 pm.

Crystal Dragon

From February 1 to February 29, lunch and dinner set menu selections ideal for sharing with family and friends are offered at Crystal Dragon. The seven-course Chinese New Year Elegant Menu includes: Prosperity Salmon Fish Yu Shang with Fruit Salad – a dish tossed and mixed as high as possible to symbolize success and wealth; Braised Eight Sea Treasure and Shredded Abalone Broth; Steamed Cod with Baby Cabbage in Supreme Soy, Hong Kong Style – the cod fish signifying abundance as fish is one of the eight Buddhist symbols of good fortune; Stir Fried Prawns with Butter, Curry Leaf and Crispy Egg Threads; Wok-Fried Glutinous Rice and Wild Rice with Barbecue Pork Meat Wrapped in Lotus Leaf – the sticky rice symbolizing unity, while the rice represents a gathering of people; and ends with Chilled Red Bean Puree served with Coconut Milk Ice Cream , and Double Flavor of Chinese New Year Nian Gao Platter, a traditional Chinese New Year specialty that represents prosperity and fortune.

The eight-course Chinese New Year Treasures Menu serves Prosperity Salmon Fish Yu Shang with Rock Melon Salad; Double Boiled Fish Maw and Dried Scallop with Abalone in Cordyceps Flower Soup; Steamed Sea Grouper with Shredded Ginger in Homemade Soy Sauce – reaffirming fish as a symbol of good fortune; Oven Roasted Fragrant Chicken Coated with Sesame Seeds; Stewed Sea Cucumber, Roasted Pork Belly and Fish Maw with Green Vegetables; Stir-Fried Egg Noodles with Seafood, Mushrooms and Shredded Cabbage – the egg is believed to characterize fertility, money, wealth and gold, while the long, uncut noodles represent a long life; complemented by Warm Sweetened Eight Treasures Tea with Ginseng in Honey and Double Flavor of Chinese New Year Nian Gao Platter – both desserts embody a “sweet” start to the Chinese New Year. Both the “Elegant” and “Treasures” menus come with traditional Chinese Tea.

For guests who prefer to dine a la carte, dishes such as Prosperity Salmon Fish Yu Shang; Vegetarian and Fruits Yu Shang; Steamed Cod with Baby Cabbage in Supreme Soy, Hong Kong Style; Stewed Sea Cucumber, Pork Belly and Fish Maw with Green Vegetables; Oven Roasted Fragrant Chicken Coated with Sesame Seeds; Stir Fried Prawns with Butter, Curry Leaf and Crispy Egg Thread; Stewed Pork Legs Knuckle with Preserved Red Bean Curd Sauce; Wok Fried Glutinous Rice with Wild Rice and BBQ Pork Meat; and Three Flavor Chinese New Year Nian Gao Platter, are offered.

DreamPlay

Kids are in for an adrenalin-pumping challenge with the "Dragon Warrior Quest". Offered on two weekends: February 6 to 8, and February 13 and 14, the Chinese New Year activity requires aspiring Dragon Warriors to accomplish three adventures: Training with the Dragon Warrior Po who teaches young warriors kung fu moves; Reach your Destiny, which measures the speed at which the warrior accomplishes the feat at the Thread of Enlightenment and the length of time he is able to reach for the scroll at the Wall of Destiny; and Be a Master in Baking at Gingy's Kitchen where the warriors in their red toques have fun baking monkey-shaped cookies. Warriors with the fastest speed are awarded the Dragon Warrior pin at the end of their quest. Participation in this activity is at P1,160 per child for four hours and P1,780 per child for an all-day pass. Kung Fu-Hip hop performances at 1 pm and 4 pm, and the visit of the Prosperity God passing around ang bao envelopes to lucky visitors are added highlights.

City of Dreams Manila sets the backdrop for a truly auspicious Chinese New Year and prepares a celebratory feast for all its guests befitting its first anniversary celebration through commemorative experiences and delectable dining at the property's Chinese-themed venues this February.
